FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 01/25/2017

Bill Axt (AXT), Assistant Chief, Honolulu Police Department (HPD), was interviewed by telephone. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, AXT provided the following information:

AXT was HPD's Fiscal Officer prior to being promoted to Assistant Chief; AXT has a good understanding of HPD's budgetary process.

On January 12, 2017, City and County of Honolulu Corporation Counsel Donna Leong (LEONG) and Duane Pang (PANG) met with HPD Acting Chief Cary Okimoto (OKIMOTO), HPD Deputy Chief Jerry Inouye (INOUE), AXT, and HPD Senior Legal Advisor Lynne Uyema to discuss funding in order to pay a settlement to current HPD Chief Louis Kealoha (KEALOHA) for his resignation/retirement.

During the meeting, LEONG indicated [REDACTED] she would not disclose the amount because it was highly confidential.

AXT informed LEONG that the Charter Rules state since KEALOHA was not under a contract, he was not able to obtain a settlement or severance pay from HPD.

AXT told PANG, by law, HPD cannot pay someone severance pay for something they did not do especially if the money is federally funded money. [REDACTED]

According to AXT, Corporation Counsel can settle without getting City Council's approval if the amount is under $5000. AXT understood KEALOHA's payment would be over $5000 based on recent news reports. [REDACTED]

AXT explained to the Writer that it was legal for HPD to move money

AXT stated HPD has done settlement agreements from the salary budget, however, those settlements are all done legally. HPD's salary budget is short this year and projected to be short for next quarter. HPD also provides lump sum payouts to individuals whose vacation hours accumulated at the time of separation. There is a line item in HPD's budget for this payout.
